

Nakashima Woodworker

Best of Architectural Digest Home Design Show 2010

Nakashima Woodworker unites the collections of the celebrated mid-century furniture designer George Nakashima and his daughter Mira Nakashima. The thoughtful pieces combine the classic Nakashima designs of chairs, benches and tables with the Keisho Collection — Mira's own line that continues the tradition of all the pieces manufactured by the expert craftsmen at Nakashima Studios. Check it out:

MORE INFO:

- New York
- Aaron Able
- March 19, 2010 06:28PM