TEENY TINY ART BLOG

ABOUT

I am an artist and owner/curator of an art gallery in a lovely little city by the sea. I started this blog with the hope to inform, inspire and intrigue.

Architectural Digest HOME DESIGN SHOW

The 9th Annual Architectural Digest Home Design Show in New York City opened yesterday! Our dear friend and fabulous furniture designer/maker extraordinaire, George Beland, is exhibiting work from his Foundation Line. "Acceptance into this juried show testifies to Beland's artistry." (Andrew Lieb, Portsmouth Herald)

The show features a world of design inspiration...

- Exhibits from nearly 300 premium brands
- Antiques and mid-century section, presented by 1stdibs.com
- Design seminars presented by The New York Times and industry associations
- Cooking demonstrations and tastings by celebrity chefs

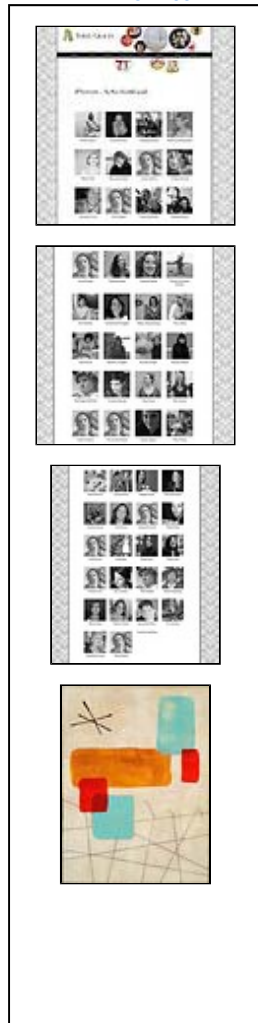

- Complimentary one-on-one consultations with design professionals
- Curated tours with members of the American Society of Interior Designers

George has been working very hard preparing for this show! He has added two new pieces to his foundation line, a television console and a "not so small" small table...

Here is George in his studio - he was recently interviewed by Andrew Lieb for the Portsmouth Herald.

"In his workshop at the Button Factory, furniture builder George Beland is at work on a custom kitchen set he'll exhibit at the Architectural Digest Home Design Show from March 18-21 at Pier 94 in New York City." more

The Architectural Digest Home Design Show is Thursday thru Sunday. For those of you who won't be able to make the big show, George's work is, of course, always on display at Three Graces. Congratulations George! Work it!!
