There's never been a better time for design enthusiasts to visit NYC than this March.

The New York Design Festival encompasses a series of art and design events taking place between March 15th and 22nd, 2010. Anchored by the Architectural Digest Home Design Show (March 18-21), DIFFA's Dining by Design (March 18-22) and Go Green Expo (March 19-21) at Piers 92/94, the NY Design Festival offers a week of exhibitions, educational programming and special events to celebrate New York City and its role as the leader in the fields of architecture and design.
