

the interior design community

AD Home Show returns to NYC with new features

Posted on Friday, February 25, 2011.

The Architectural Digest Home Show returns to New York City March 17-20 with new participants and programs.

Gilt Home will present the Architectural Digest Designer Consultation Lounge furnished by The Rug Company and Dedon, offering one-on-one, 20-minute consultations offer expert advice from principals of top firms including John Barman, Elissa Cullman, Mariette Himes Gomez, Alexa Hampton, Juan Montoya, Matthew Smyth, Alex Papachristidis, William Georgis and Vincente Wolf.

To secure a time, register at gilt.com/archdigest starting March 6.

An exclusive auction of a limited number of original 1966 Metropolitan Opera House wall sconces designed by Hans Harald Rath of J. & L. Lobmeyr, Vienna, will be on display within the lounge, and up for auction at the show. Prices range from $7,000-16,000 per sconce.

The annual Dining by Design to benefit Design Industries Foundation Fighting Aids (DIFFA) will feature

Liebherr, Springs Global, and Moore & Giles in unique environments by top names in design.

The AD Home Show covers a broad range of categories, among them home furnishings, accessories, art and antiques, kitchen and bath products, flooring and fabrics.