Eyes in Artists – Innovative Creator and Sculpturist Tim Forbes at the Architectural Digest Home Design Show March 17 – March 20

BY PUBLISHED: FEBRUARY 26, 2011

A prolific and respected talent, Forbes has been consistently recognized for delivering award-winning creatives to an A-list of international clients - from Royal commissions, to film and television studios and a Who's Who of law firms, corporations and organizations. Following a period of private introspection, Forbes began to fully express his creative passion – unfurling a body of opulent three-dimensional sculptures, which he brings to life in carved resin, chroma-fiberglass and cast bronze -accompanied by equally compelling art work which reflects the sculptures energy.

The Forbes Sculptures will be showcased within
The MADE Exhibition – Booth M73
March 17th – 20th, 2011
