Jia Moderne is excited to announce that we are exhibiting at the Architectural Digest Show in two weeks in New York City. Jia Moderne will be located at Booth No. 122. The Architectural Digest Show features a world of design inspiration that allows both the consumer and the trade professional to explore the latest ideas and products for the home—from furniture and lighting to kitchens and baths. It does not matter if your design project is starting from scratch or if you are just looking for that one decorative piece that will tie your overall room together, the show will tempt and delight your design senses so much that you will fall in love with something to bring home. There is something at the show for all budgets.

The 10th annual Architectural Digest Home Design Show takes place on March 17-20, 2011 and will feature exhibits from nearly 300 premium brands, keynote speakers, design seminars, cooking demonstrations, complimentary one-on-one design consultations, all-new artist sale and exhibition and much more! If you want to attend the Architectural Digest Show but don't have tickets, obtain tickets gratis from Jia Moderne!

For general guest complimentary tickets, click here. For trade professional complimentary tickets, click here.

Jia Moderne can't wait to see you there! Remember, we're located at Booth No. 122.
