"A world of design inspiration awaits at the 10th annual Architectural Digest Home Design Show. Explore the latest ideas and products for the home—from furniture and lighting to kitchens and baths. Whether starting from scratch or searching for that single object to finish a room, the Show promises to introduce you to something you simply have to bring home, no matter what your budget."

Congratulations are in order for Architectural Digest and their ten wonderful years hosting the Architectural Digest Home Design Show. A must attend event, design lovers will have an assortment of resources at their fingertips. There is so much planned for this year's event that we can guarantee a successful time.

See "2010 Architectural Digest Home Design Show Review: Innovative, Informative and Inspirational"

So what can attendees expect? Here is a brief overview:

- A keynote presentation by AD's Editor in Chief, Margaret Russell
- Designer seminars (Color in Design, Merging Two Worlds: Modern & Traditional Interiors, and more)
- Complimentary design consultations
- Cooking demonstrations (and tastings) by celebrity chefs
- Over 300 exhibits from industry brands
- And more!

Two special events show goers can attend are DIFFA's Dining by Design (see "2010 DIFFA Dining by Design Review"), and MADE, an artist project of individual artists and designers. With so much in store, we can only imagine the experience attendees will have. In our three years of attending, the show only gets better.
